CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds, 2s. 6d., and so on in proportion.
- III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money ; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The sale of any lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of description.
- VI. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale ; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which they were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited, and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen, who cannot attend this sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

* * * This very remarkable Group of medals and decorations was awarded to General Jones, then Lieutenant, for his eminent services in the Peninsular War, during the period of which he acted in the double capacity as an officer of a Portuguese regiment as well as of an English one. The group is accompanied by the diploma which General Jones received from John VI of Portugal on his appointment to the Order of the Tower and the Sword in 1825, and also by the Royal licence, signed by Lord Lansdowne and countersigned by Sir Charles Young, York Herald, authorising him to accept and wear the insignia of the Order. To these is added General Jones' Warrant, appointing him Captain of the 36th Foot, 9 Sept. 1812.

A Different Property.

107 The Naval General Service Medal, 1 clasp, Nassau, 22 March, 1808, Buxton Layton, Midshipman. Thirty-six medals were issued with this clasp, only three to Officers, (Midshipmen), the one in the W. H. Harris Collection being with 2 other bars, it may be presumed that this was the only officer's medal issued with the single clasp, Nassau, as fine as when it left the mint 1

* * * "Lieut. Buxton Layton entered the Navy 27th May, 1804, as First Class Volunteer, on board the Ethalion Frigate, Captns. Charles Stuart and Joseph Spear, employed at first in the North Sea, and then in the West Indies, where in March, 1806, he became Midshipman of the Amelia 38, Captn. William Champion; from the following August until December, 1810, he appears to have been again stationed in the North Sea, as also in the Baltic, on board the Nassau, in which ship he was for a long time employed in blockading the Texel and formed part of the Expedition to Copenhagen, 1807. Mr. Layton, on her being extricated from a mass of ice in which she had been blocked up the whole winter, assisted 22nd March, 1808, in company with the Stately 64 at the capture and destruction on the coast of Zealand, of the Danish Ship Prindts Christian Frederick, after a running fight of great length and obstinacy, in which the Nassau sustained a loss of two men killed and sixteen wounded; in Decr. 1810, he accompanied Captn. Campbell into the Tremendous 74, and sailed for the Mediterranean, where he remained with that officer until May, 1815, participating intermediately in a variety of important services, he then took up a Commission dated 10th Feb. 1815, and has since been on half pay."—vide Obyrne's Naval Biography, page 640.

108 The Badge of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Military C. B. Division, a gold Maltese Cross of eight points, enamelled argent, with lions in the angles, in the centre rose, thistle and shamrock, and three crowns, within the motto of the Order surrounded by laurel branches, below upon a scroll "Ich Dien," in perfect condition and rare, in the original case 1

- 109 The Peninsular, 5 bars, Nive, Nivelles, St. Sebastian, Victoria, Albuhera (Fredk. Von Gilsa, Capt. 1st Lt. Bat. K. G. L.), a good combination, and extremely rare as an officer's medal, and in very fine condition 1
- 110 Æ gilt. The Decoration of Honour of Charles Frederick August William of Brunswick, for services in the Peninsular 1809, for officers, obv. in centre, the Brunswick horse, &c., upon a Maltese cross, a laurel wreath in the angles; rev. "Für Treue und Tapferkeit," in centre, 1809, rare 1
- 111 The H. E. I. C. Medal in silver, for the Taking of Seringapatam, obv. the British lion standing over a prostrate tiger, on a flag above, in Persian, The Lion of God is the Conqueror, below IV May, MDCCXCIX., rev. a storming party attacking a citadel, &c., a Persian inscription below, in the original silver frame, glazed on either side, and in the original morocco case, one of the finest specimens known, and very rare 1
- 112 The Army of India Medal, 1 bar, Bhurtpoor (Lieut. J. Dyson, 21st Native Infantry), fine and very rare as an officer's medal 1
- * * * Captain Dyson was born 13th May, 1800, and entered the Army in 1822, was Captain in 1846 and died in 1851.
- 113 The Star of the Knight's Grand Cross of the Order of the Black Eagle of Prussia, in centre the black eagle flying, holding in one claw a laurel wreath, and in the other a thunderbolt, the motto above "Suum Cuique," below laurel branches upon a seven pointed star, of very fine embroidered work, in good condition, and in this size extremely rare, worn on the left breast 1
- 114 A similar Star, but somewhat smaller, also in fine condition and very rare 1
- 115 The Star of the Grand Cross of the Royal Order of Louis Grand Duchy of Hesse, in centre in gold letters "Gott Ehre Vaterland," surrounded by a wreath of laurel and oak, in green and gold, resting on a star of eight points, the whole of very fine embroidered work and very rare 1
